SUBJECT: TFHA01: MOROCCAN OFFER OF ASSISTANCE FOR HAITI

REF: STATE 004208

On January 13, King Mohammed VI of Morocco offered to send two Moroccan Royal Air Force C-130s with 20 metric tons of medical supplies worth approximately USD 1 million to Haiti. Since then, the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and Cooperation and the Inspector General (CHOD) of the Royal Armed Forces, General Abdelaziz Bennani, have demarched the Embassy several times seeking information on how to coordinate arrival and delivery of these supplies. The Government would like the aircraft to be airborne by 18:00 GMT on January 15. Please advise soonest.
